DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1 and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Takeuchi (US 6424608).

In regard to claim 1, Takeuchi an information recording medium that contains information at a predetermined position of said information recording medium (column 5 lines 23 and 24) indicating whether an asymmetry value is available for adjustment of a recording condition (column 6 lines 17-34, An incorrect asymmetry value will not be used to record information), the information being based on a comparison result between asymmetry values obtained from signals recorded under at least two or more recording conditions (Fig. 11).

In regard to claim 28, see claim 1 rejection above.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-3 and 29-30 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 4-8, 11-12, 15-27 and 31-54 are allowed.
